Forwarded herewith are the Sionsky letters received from ARWOODE and read by [ ] and [ ] Of particular interest to Headquarters will be the continuing evidence of the widespread demand for AEEGGHEAD publications inside FJSTEAL and of the awareness there of specific titles available. Other items of interest for the record are as follows:

1. The AEEGGHEAD outlet in HBJOINT is getting free (Soviet-paid) advertising inside Russia via Morozov's ad in Russkiye Novosti. This is better than quid pro quo as a return for our running the Globe ads.

2. The mention in a Khrabrovitsky letter of Nina Konstantinovna Balmont, the daughter of the deceased poet, Balmont (on whom [ ] is working), indicates that the daughter is alive in Moscow and not as some rumors have stated that she is living in HBJOINT.
